

Exploring the Difference between Bullying Behaviour and Developmentally Appropriate Teasing

with Internationally Acclaimed Mary Gordon of the Roots of Empathy Program

A Workshop for Early Childhood Educators

Welcoming educators of young children to explore with Mary Gordon developmentally appropriate behaviour and bullying prevention in the early years.

- Defining bullying in the early years
- Defining teasing
- Responding to parents

Tuesday October 27, 2015

9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Niagara College, Room AH141 (Auditorium), 300 Woodlawn Road, Welland (campus map available at: www.niagaracollege.ca/visit/addresses-and-directions/)

Parking cost: $1-$5

Registration

No cost for workshop; however registration is required by contacting the Early Childhood Community Development Centre at 905.646.7311 ext. 304, eccdc@eccdc.org or www.eccdc.org

---

The workshops are being hosted by the Children are Safe Committee of Niagara Children's Planning Council.

